

2017 Award Scholarship

Don Dwiggins Memorial Scholarship presented by BOMA Anchorage

As an architect and advocate serving a broad cross section of Alaska's real estate, property management and development clients, Don was committed to education and mentorship in the industry. To honor that legacy and give back to our Alaska students, BOMA Anchorage and its members present this scholarship in Don's name.

The Don Dwiggins Memorial Scholarship is an annual academic award given to an Alaska student either entering into or currently enrolled as a university student in a field related to real estate, property management, construction, architecture or engineering. The award is in the amount of $1,000, and must be used by August 31, 2018. The scholarship application is due on October 27th, 2017 by 5pm and should be submitted electronically to bae@bomaanchorage.com.
